ORDER IN COUNCIL APPLYING THE EXTRADITION ACTS TO
SIAM. NOVEMBER 10TH, 1911.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1911.

PRESENT.

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Prime Minister.

Lord President.

Lord Privy Seal.

Lord Chamberlain.

And whereas a Treaty was concluded at Bangkok on the 4th day of March, 1911 between His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Siam, for the Extradition of Criminals which Treaty is in the terms following:—

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, and His Majesty the King of Siam, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within their respective territories, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should under certain circumstances be reciprocally delivered up; the said High Contracting Parties have named as their plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:—

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India: Arthur Peel, Esquire, His Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Bangkok, etc.

And His Majesty the King of Siam: H. R. H. Prince Devawongse Varoprakar, His Minister for Foreign Affairs, etc.,

Who, having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles:—

ARTICLE 1.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other persons over whom they respectively exercise jurisdiction who, being accused or convicted of a crime or offence committed in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party, under the circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty.

ARTICLE 2.

The crimes or offences for which the extradition is to be granted are the following:—

1. Murder, or attempt, or conspiracy to murder.
2. Manslaughter.
3. Assault occasioning actual bodily harm. Malicious wounding or inflicting grievous bodily harm.
4. Counterfeiting or altering money, or uttering counterfeit or altered money.
5. Knowingly making any instrument, tool, or engine adapted or intended for counterfeiting coin.
6. Forgery, counterfeiting, or altering or uttering what is forged or counterfeited or altered.
7. Embezzlement or larceny.
8. Malicious injury to property, by explosives or otherwise, if the offence be indictable.
9. Obtaining money, goods, or valuable securities by false pretences.

- 10. Receiving money, valuable security, or other property, knowing the same to have been stolen, embezzled, or unlawfully obtained.
- 11. Crimes against bankruptcy law.
- 12. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trus'ee, or director, or member or public officer of any company made criminal by any law for the time being in force.
- 13. Perjury, or subornation of perjury.
- 14. Rape.
- 15. Carnal knowledge, or any attempt to have carnal knowledge of a girl under the age of puberty, according to the laws of the respective countries.
- 16. Indecent assault.
- 17. Procuring miscarriage, administering drugs, or using instruments with intent to procure the miscarriage of a woman.
- 18. Abduction.
- 19. Child stealing.
- 20. Abandoning children, exposing or unlawfully detaining them.
- 21. Kidnapping and false imprisonment.
- 22. Burglary or housebreaking.
- 23. Arson.
- 24. Robbery with violence.
- 25. Any malicious act done with intent to endanger the safety of any person in a railway train.
- 26. Threats by letter or otherwise, with intent to extort.
- 27. Piracy by law of nations.
- 28. Sinking or destroying a vessel at sea, or attempting or conspiring to do so.
- 29. Assaults on board ship on the high seas, with intent to destroy life, or do grievous bodily harm.
- 30. Revolt, or conspiracy to revolt, by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas against the authority of the master.
- 31. Dealing in slaves in such a manner as to constitute a criminal offence against the laws of both States.

Extradition is to be granted for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both contracting Parties.

Extradition may also be granted at the discretion of the State applied to in respect of any other crime for which according to the law of both of the contracting Parties for the time being in force, the grant can be made.

ARTICLE 3.

Either Government may, at its absolute discretion, refuse to deliver up its own subjects to the other Government.

ARTICLE 4.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of Siam, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial in the territory of Siam or in the United Kingdom respectively for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or if the person claimed on the part of the Government of Siam, should be under examination for any crime in the territory of Siam or in the United Kingdom respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

ARTICLE 5.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is deemed by the Party on whom the demand is made to be one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE 6.

A person surrendered can in no case be detained or tried in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime or on account of any other matters than those for which the extradition shall have taken place, until he has been restored or had an opportunity of returning to the State by which he has been surrendered.

This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE 7.

The requisition for extradition shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the High Contracting Parties respectively.

The requisition for the extradition of the accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition for extradition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by a copy of the judgment passed on the convicted person by the competent court of the State that makes the requisition.

A sentence passed in contumaciam is not to be deemed a conviction, but a person so sentenced may be dealt with as an accused person.

ARTICLE 8.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive. The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had taken place for a crime committed in the same country.

ARTICLE 9.

When either of the contracting Parties considers the case urgent it may apply for the provisional arrest of the criminal and the safe keeping of any objects relating to the offence.

Such request will be granted, provided the existence of a sentence or warrant of arrest is proved, and the nature of the offence of which the fugitive is accused is clearly stated.

The warrant of arrest to which this Article refers should be issued by the competent authorities of the country applying for extradition. The accused shall on arrest be sent as speedily as possible before a competent Magistrate.

ARTICLE 10.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or the affirmations of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, and certificates of or judicial documents stating the fact of a conviction, provided the same are authenticated as follows:—

1. A warrant must purport to be signed by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the other State.
2. Depositions or affirmations, or the copies thereof must purport to be certified under the hand of a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the other State, to be the original depositions or affirmations, or to be the true copies thereof, as the case may require.
3. A certificate of or judicial document stating the fact of a conviction must purport to be certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the other State.
4. In every case such warrant, deposition, affirmation, copy, certificate, or judicial document must be authenticated either by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice or some other Minister of the other State; but any other mode of authentication for the time being permitted by the law of the country where the examination is taken may be substituted for the foregoing.

ARTICLE 11.

The extradition shall not take place unless the evidence be found sufficient according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the courts of the State which makes the requisition, and that the crime of which he has been convicted is one in respect of which extradition could, at the time of such conviction, have been granted by the State applied to. The fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered until the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his being committed to prison to await his surrender.

ARTICLE 12.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date.

ARTICLE 13.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or the proper tribunal thereof shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE 14.

All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered, at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place, and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

ARTICLE 15.

The High Contracting Parties renounce any claim for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred by them in the arrest and maintenance of the person to be surrendered and his conveyance till placed on board the ship; they reciprocally agree to bear such expenses themselves.

ARTICLE 16.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of His Britannic Majesty, so far as the laws for the time being in force in such Colonies and foreign possessions respectively will allow.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any such Colony or foreign possession may be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by any person authorized to act in such Colony or possession as a consular officer of Siam.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, and so far as the laws of such Colonies or foreign possessions will allow, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governors or chief authorities, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender or to refer the matter to His Britannic Majesty's Government.

His Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of criminals from Siam who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis, as nearly as may be, and so far as the laws of such Colonies or foreign possessions will allow, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

Requisitions for the surrender of a fugitive criminal emanating from any Colony or foreign possession of His Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE 17.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties at any time on giving to the other six months' notice of its intention to do so.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London, as soon as possible.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done in duplicate at Bangkok, the fourth day of March, 1911, in the 129th Year of "Ratanakosindr."

And whereas the ratifications of the above Treaty were exchanged at London on the 1st day of August, 1911;

NOW, THEREFORE, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to him by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the 24th day of November, 1911, the said Acts shall apply in the case of Siam under and in accordance with the said Treaty of the 4th March 1911.

Provided always that the operation of the said Acts shall be and remain suspended within the Dominion of Canada, so long as an Act of the Parliament of Canada, being Part I of chapter 155 of "The Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906," and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," shall continue in force there, and no longer.

TELEGRAPHHS.

The 13th January 1912.

No. 362-30.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 7 of the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885 (XIII of 1885), the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct that, with effect from the 1st January 1912, the following additions shall be made to the rules published with the Notification of the Government of India in the Department of Commerce and Industry No. 6975-137 (Telegraphs), dated the 16th of September 1909, namely:—

General rules for Deferred Foreign telegrams.

359. The sender of a Private telegram may obtain the benefit of a reduction of 50 per cent. in the charge on condition that the telegram is written in plain language, as defined hereafter, and that it is not transmitted until after telegrams charged for at full rates or at Press rates. Such telegrams are termed "Deferred Foreign telegrams."

Form of handing in.

360. Declaration by sender.—The sender of a Deferred Foreign telegram must sign when handing in the telegram, a declaration giving a formal assurance that the text is entirely in plain language and that it does not bear any meaning other than that which appears on the face of it. The declaration must specify the language in which the telegram is written.

361. Supplementary instructions.—The sender of a Deferred Foreign telegram at half rates must insert before the address the supplementary instruction L C, completed as is laid down in Rule 363. This instruction is counted in the number of words charged for.

362. Form.—The text of Deferred Foreign telegrams must be written entirely in plain language and must not contain any figures, commercial marks, groups of letters, or signs of punctuation, or abbreviated expressions (Rule 163). Any telegram containing a succession of isolated letters, numbers, names or words without connected meaning and, generally, any telegram which does not in the opinion of the Telegraph service bear an intelligible meaning on the face of it, is not admitted to the benefit of half rates. Registered addresses are accepted if accompanied by a text which makes their nature clear. Numbers must be written in words. Telegrams without text are not admitted.

363. Deferred Foreign telegrams at half rates must be written in French, or in one of the languages of the country of origin or destination specified by the Administrations concerned and authorised for International telegraphic correspondence in plain language. According as the language employed is (1) French, (2) a language of the country of origin, or (3) a language of the country of destination, the supplementary instruction L C is to be completed and becomes L C F, L C O, or L C D. The use of two or more languages in the same telegram is not allowed.

The wording of the address and the signature of these telegrams are governed by the rules in force for full rate telegrams.

364. Counting of words.—The words in the address, in the text and in the signature are counted according to the rules in force for full rate telegrams.

365. Places between which Deferred telegrams are admitted.—The countries to which Deferred Foreign telegrams may be sent at half rates are indicated in the tariff tables published in the Telegraph Guide.

366. Application of full rates to irregular telegrams.—The Telegraph Administrations reserve the right to refuse to receive at half rates any telegram which, in their opinion, is not in accordance with the foregoing conditions.

When the delivery office observes that a telegram bearing one of the supplementary instructions L C F or L C D does not comply with these conditions the telegram is treated in the same way as one containing irregular combinations (Rules 231 and 232).

367. Order of transmission.—Deferred Foreign telegrams are only transmitted after Private telegrams at full rates and Press telegrams. Those which have not reached their destination within a period of 24 hours from the time of handing in are transmitted in turn with telegrams charged for at the full rate.

368. Delivery.—Deferred Foreign telegrams at half rates are delivered in turn with telegrams at full rates.

369. Special services.—Deferred Foreign telegrams at half rates may bear any of the supplementary instructions referred to in Rule 174 (d). The rates applicable to the various special services desired by the sender of a Deferred Foreign telegram (paid service telegrams, conditions of delivery, RP, TC, etc.), are the same as in the case of full rate telegrams. The corresponding supplementary instructions are charged for at half rates. Telegraph money orders and maritime telegrams are not admitted at the deferred rate.

370. Refunds.—The period during which a refund can be claimed on account of delay in the case of a Deferred Foreign telegram is fixed at 72 hours [Rule 348 (c).]

371. General conditions.—Deferred Foreign telegrams at half rates are subject to all the conditions of the International Telegraph regulations which do not conflict with the foregoing conditions.

EXPLOSIVES.

The 13th January 1912.

No. 370-39.—I. In supersession of the Notification in this Department No. 4197-26, dated the 1st June 1906, and in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 17 of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884 (IV of 1884), the Governor General in Council is pleased hereby to declare that acetylene when liquid or when subject to a pressure greater than $1\frac{1}{2}$ atmospheres shall be deemed to be an explosive within the meaning of the said Act:

Provided that, subject to the conditions hereinafter specified, acetylene, when in admixture with oil-gas, shall not be deemed to be an explosive within the meaning of the said Act, when under compression—

- (1) The acetylene shall be generated only by the Atkins Dry-Process.
- (2) The proportion of acetylene shall not exceed fifty parts by volume in every one hundred parts of the mixture of acetylene and oil-gas.
- (3) The acetylene and oil-gas shall be mixed together in a chamber or vessel before the gases are subjected to compression.
- (4) The mixture shall not be compressed to a pressure exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds per square inch.

Provided also that, subject to the conditions hereinafter specified, acetylene, when compressed into porous substances, with or without acetone, shall not be deemed to be an explosive within the meaning of the said Act—

- (1) The porous substance shall fill, as completely as possible, the cylinder or other vessel into which the acetylene is compressed.
- (2) The porosity of the substance shall not exceed eighty per cent.
- (3) Due precaution shall be taken to exclude air from every part of the apparatus before the acetylene is compressed.
- (4) Due precaution shall be taken to prevent undue rise of temperature in compressing the acetylene.
- (5) The pressure shall not exceed one hundred and fifty pounds to the square inch.
- (6) Every cylinder or other vessel into which acetylene is to be compressed shall be tested by hydraulic pressure of not less than double the pressure to which the vessel is to be submitted in use, such hydraulic pressure being maintained for a period of not less than ten minutes.
- (7) The compression pump shall be surrounded by rope mantlets and no reservoir shall be used during compression unless it is also filled with the porous substance.
- (8) In the case where acetone is used for absorbing the acetylene, due precaution shall be taken that the quantity of acetone is such that when fully charged with acetylene it does not completely fill the porosity of the porous substance.
- (9) The compression of acetylene shall be carried out only on such premises as shall have been approved by an Inspector of Explosives.
- (10) Every cylinder or other vessel in which acetylene has been compressed in virtue of this Notification shall be legibly marked with the words—together with the name of the firm by whom the vessel has been charged.

"Acetylene compressed into porous substance exempted by Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry, Notification No. 370-39, dated the 13th January 1912"

- (11) Every facility shall be given to the Inspectors of Explosives to inspect the apparatus and methods by which the cylinders or other vessels are charged in virtue of this Notification.

II. In supersession of the Notification of the Government of India in the Home Department, No. 2289, dated the 31st August 1900, and in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 6 of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884 (IV of 1884), the Governor General in Council is pleased to prohibit absolutely the manufacture, possession and importation of such acetylene as is declared by paragraph I of this Notification to be an explosive.

No. 391-39.—In supersession of paragraph IV of this Department Notification No. 2933-24, dated the 23rd April 1909, and in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 17 of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884 (IV of 1884), as applied to Berar by Government of India, Foreign Department, Notification No. 4742-1, dated the 4th November 1887, the Governor General in Council is pleased hereby to declare that acetylene when liquid or when subject to a pressure greater than $1\frac{1}{2}$ atmospheres shall be deemed to be an explosive within the meaning of the said Act:

Provided that, subject to the conditions hereinafter specified, acetylene, when in admixture with oil-gas, shall not be deemed to be an explosive within the meaning of the said Act, when under compression.

(1) The acetylene shall be generated only by the Atkins Dry Process.

(2) The proportion of acetylene shall not exceed fifty parts by volume in every one hundred parts of the mixture of acetylene and oil-gas.

(3) The acetylene and oil-gas shall be mixed together in a chamber or vessel before the gasses are subjected to compression.

(4) The mixture shall not be compressed to a pressure exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds per square inch.

Provided also that, subject to the conditions hereinafter specified, acetylene, when compressed into porous substances, with or without acetone, shall not be deemed to be an explosive within the meaning of the said Act—

(1) The porous substance shall fill, as completely as possible, the cylinder or other vessel into which the acetylene is compressed.

(2) The porosity of the substance shall not exceed eighty per cent.

(3) Due precaution shall be taken to exclude air from every part of the apparatus before the acetylene is compressed.

(4) Due precaution shall be taken to prevent undue rise of temperature in compressing the acetylene.

(5) The pressure shall not exceed one hundred and fifty pounds to the square inch.

(6) Every cylinder or other vessel into which acetylene is to be compressed shall be tested by hydraulic pressure of not less than double the pressure to which the vessel is to be submitted in use, such hydraulic pressure being maintained for a period of not less than ten minutes.

(7) The compression pump shall be surrounded by rope mantlets and no reservoir shall be used during compression unless it is also filled with the porous substance.

(8) In the case where acetone is used for absorbing the acetylene, due precaution shall be taken that the quantity of acetone is such that when fully charged with acetylene it does not completely fill the porosity of the porous substance.

(9) The compression of the acetylene shall be carried out only on such premises as shall have been approved by an Inspector of Explosives.

(10) Every cylinder or other vessel in which acetylene has been compressed in virtue of this Notification shall be legibly marked with the words together with the name of the firm by whom the vessel has been charged.

(11) Every facility shall be given to the Inspectors of Explosives to inspect the apparatus and methods by which the cylinders or other vessels are charged in virtue of this Notification.

11. In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 6 of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884 (IV of 1884), as applied to Berar by Government of India, Foreign Department Notification No. 4742-1, dated the 4th November 1887, the Governor General in Council is pleased to prohibit absolutely the manufacture, possession and importation of such acetylene as is declared by paragraph I of this Notification to be an explosive.

ROYAL WARRANT.

GEORGE R. I.

Warrant extending the Decoration of the Victoria Cross to the Native Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Men of the Indian Army.

George, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting.

Whereas Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, and bearing date at Her Court at Buckingham Palace, the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the nineteenth year of Her reign, did institute and create a new naval and military decoration, to be styled and designated the "Victoria Cross," which decoration She expressed Her desire should be highly prized and eagerly sought after by the officers and men of Her Naval and Military Services, and did also make, ordain, and establish the rules and ordinances therein set forth for the government of the same, to be thenceforward inviolably observed and kept.

And whereas for divers reasons Us thereunto moving, We are desirous of rewarding the individual gallant services of native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of Our Indian Army by the bestowal of the said decoration, which We are desirous shall be highly prized and eagerly sought after by the said native officers, non-commissioned officers and men.

Now know ye that We, of Our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, have thought fit hereby to signify Our Royal Will and Pleasure that the said decoration shall be conferred on the native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of Our Indian Army who may be qualified to receive the same, in accordance with the rules and ordinances made, ordained and established for the Government thereof by the said recited Warrant, and We do by these Presents, for us, Our Heirs and Successors, ordain and appoint that it shall be competent for the native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of Our Indian Army to obtain the said decoration in the manner set forth in the rules and ordinances referred to, or in accordance with any further rules and ordinances which may hereafter be made and promulgated by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, for the government of the said decoration.

And We do further, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, ordain and appoint that in place of the special pension conferred by the fourteenth rule of the said recited Warrant, every native officer who shall have received the Cross shall from the date of the act by which such decoration has been gained be entitled to a special pension of five hundred and twenty-five rupees a year, and each additional bar conferred under the fourth rule on such native officer shall carry with it an additional pension of one hundred and fifty rupees a year. In the case of a warrant or non-commissioned officer or soldier the special pension shall be one hundred and fifty rupees, with seventy-five rupees additional for each additional bar. On the death of a recipient of the Cross these pensions shall be continued to his widow until her death or re-marriage.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 21st day of October, in the second year of Our Reign, and in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

By His Majesty's Command,

HALDANE OF CLOAN.

"His Majesty's Diplomatic Agent and Consul General has been instructed by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to issue the following Proclamation for the information of all whom it may concern:—

PROCLAMATION.

His Highness Seyyid Ali bin Hamoud, Sultan of Zanzibar, has informed His Majesty the King that the state of his health is unhappily such as to prevent his any longer fulfilling the duties incumbent on him as ruler of the Sultanate; and His Highness has therefore asked to be relieved of a burthen which he has ceased to be able to bear.

His Majesty, taking into consideration the necessity of providing for the succession, deemed fit to offer to Seyyid Khaled bin Mahomed bin Said, His Highness' Uncle, the high position thus rendered vacant; but, while expressing his deep sense of the great honour paid to him, Seyyid Khaled has prayed to be held excused on the ground of ill-health.

His Majesty has been Graciously pleased to allow of this excuse; and out of his Princely Care for the well-being of the Sultanate, and more especially for that of the Islands of Zanzibar and Pemba, has called to the Throne His Highness Seyyid Khalifa bin Harub bin Thweini bin Said whom may God long preserve."

(6) Any person who has been nominated for election may withdraw his candidature at any time before the day appointed for holding the election.

Election.

4. (1) If one candidate only is duly nominated the Master shall forthwith declare such candidate to be elected.

(2) If more candidates than one are duly nominated, the Master shall forthwith prepare a list of such candidates, containing their names and addresses, and shall cause such list to be posted in a conspicuous place at the office of the Association.

5. At the meeting at which the election is held the Master shall read out the names of all nominated candidates.

6. The voting shall be by ballot, and each member of the Association shall have one vote only, which must be given personally by the person entitled to vote as provided in rule 1.

7. When the counting of the votes has been completed by the Master, he shall forthwith declare the candidate to whom the largest number of votes has been given to be elected.

8. Where an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates, and the addition of a vote will entitle any of the candidates to be declared elected, the determination of the person to whom such one additional vote shall be deemed to have been given shall be made by lot to be drawn in the presence of the Master and in such manner as he may determine.

Publication of result of Election.

9. The Master shall without delay report the result of the election to the local Government, and the name of the candidate elected shall be published in the local official Gazette.

Delegation of Master's Functions.

10. Any of the functions assigned to the Master under this Schedule may be delegated by him to any officer of the Association.
